

Inviting Proposals From 5 Star/4 Star Hotels in Delhi for the Visiting Delegates to INDIPEX 2011

India Post is organizing INDIPEX 2011, World Philatelic Exhibition from 12th February'2011 to 18th February'2011 at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi. In this exhibition, approximately 75 countries would be participating. This is a very prestigious event and H.E, the President of India is being requested to be the Patron- in –Chief of this exhibition.

India Post is required to provide accommodation to at least one hundred persons. In addition, good number of foreign stamp dealers and members of national postal administrations are likely to stay in the hotel after India Post designates the chosen one as official hotel.

It is further informed that India Post would publish the name of the official hotel in the bulletins, information brochures, souvenirs and will prominently display it in the home page of the official website of the exhibition secretariat (www.indipex2011.com). The publicity material bearing the name and the address of the official hotel will be mailed to the exhibitors, dealers, officials all over the world and would be distributed in World Philatelic Exhibition at London in May 2010, in Washington and Paris in June 2010, in Luxemburg in July 2010 and in Portugal and Johannesburg in October 2010. In this way, the designated official hotel stands to gain on account of publicity.

We shall require about one hundred double-bed rooms with complimentary breakfast in the package. In addition, a couple of suites may also be required. The tentative stay of the guests will be for 10 days. The check-in and check-out timings should be flexible like early check-in and late check-out as these delegates shall arrive by international flights. The hotel is also required to provide free pick up facility from the IGI Airport.

In this context, it is requested to please quote the rates of stay in a double bed room per day per person with details of the package. If there is any discount on food, beverages, STD/ISD call, use of laundry, use of gymnasium etc to the guests, it should be clearly mentioned in the package. The proposal should reach by the evening of 22nd March 2010 at the address given below. If required, we may inspect the facilities available in your Hotel.
